Your privacy is important to us. As part of the data protection legislation governing Ireland we are required to keep a record of your consent to process your personal data. Your personal data includes your name, email address, address and phone number. We will only keep your personal data for as long as is necessary, ie for as long as you are involved in the parish. It will not be passed onto any third parties without your consent.

Consent : From time to time we would like to contact you in relation to parish activities. Please tick the box if you consent to this.

If at any time you would like to withdraw your consent please contact the parish office or parish priest (contact details on the website).

Please note : A permanent entry will be made in the register of marriages of any person married in the parish, as required under the code of canon law. This is implicit in the acceptance of the sacrament of marriage in the church, and provides an important resource for future historical researchers.

Thank you for completing this form, and congratulations on your upcoming wedding. I will strive to help you have a happy wedding day, but more importantly I will strive as a priest to help you have a happy married life together, with Gods abundant blessing on your marriage and family.
